FRATERNAL ASSOCIATION WILL ERECT BUILDING

HANDSOME EDIFICE FOR GRAND AVENUE TO BE CONSTRUCTED AT COST OF ABOUT $18,000

W. J. Smith, president of the Fraternal Hall Association of South San Francisco, yesterday announced that the organization is about to erect a fraternal hall building at a cost of $18,000.

In 1908 the hall association was formed and lot 38, block 117, on Grand avenue, 100 feet west of Maple, was purchased for this purpose, but nothing in the way of hastening the project was done until recently, when Smith was chosen as president. The new administration immediately became busy and sold several thousand shares of the hall association's stock. The hall association is incorporated for $25,000, consisting of 25,000 shares at the par value of $1 each. The sale of some of the stock enabled the association to make financial arrangements with the bank for the erection of the building.

G. E. McCrea is the architect of the proposed hall building, which will be two stories in height with a basement. The site is 50 feet wide and 140 feet in length. There will be a large ballroom, stage, reception rooms, banquet room and other features to be desired in this connection. The ballroom will be 37 by 87. On the upper floor will be two large hall-rooms, 36 by 48. In the basement will be poolrooms and bowling alleys. There is under consideration the project of installing a swimming tank of 30 by 40 feet at a cost of $1200.

Martin Hyland is secretary of the hall association. Al Kauffmann is treasurer. In addition to the president, secretary and treasurer, the following well known South San Francisco residents are directors of the hall association: Henry Veit, John Riordan, Charles Storek, George Kiessling Sr. and Henry Minnucciani.

ASSESSMENT ROLLS OF CITY COMPLETED

W. J. Smith, city clerk and assessor of South San Francisco, announces that the municipal assessment rolls are completed and now open to the public for inspection. The assessed valuation for the city this fiscal year is about $1,840,000, an increase of about $140,000 over the previous year.

BEAUTIFUL JEWEL GIFT FOR LOCKHART, WHO JOINED WAR CORPS

Mr. Oswald A. Lockhardt, for years a resident of this city and for ten years a trusted employee of W. P. Fuller & Co., was presented with a diamond stickpin, surmounted by an American flag, as a token of regard from the employees of W. P. Fuller & Co. last Thursday. Mr. Lockhart is a member of the Masonic Ambulance Corps of California, recently organized in San Francisco.

This token of remembrance was presented by Mr. Robert Gough, a fellow workman, at the local factory. Mr. Gough gave a farewell address on behalf of the employees, expressing their sadness on hearing of his departure for France in the near future. "Archie" was speechless with surprise, and gave his fond appreciation in a few words.

In leaving to take up these duties, "Archie," as he is familiarly known by his many friends, does so with the best wishes for a safe return by all who will miss his cheery smile and pleasing personality, which has encouraged them when things went wrong.

Knowing as we do that a man can do no more for his country in time of trouble than offer his life that the suffering of others might be eased, we would not wish him to stay. We are sure that when we hear from him from time to time that we will be proud to claim him as our friend.

The Ladies' Aid social, which was to have been held at the M. E. Church next Wednesday evening, has been postponed to some future date.

NEW JUNK ORDINANCE TO PREVENT THEFTS

On Wednesday last David Sola, a boy of 16 years, son of Charles Sola, ran away from home.

The boy purchased a ticket at the railroad depot for Los Gatos, but it is probable that his destination was San Jose.

He sold a lot of junk to the jukeman to get the money to get away with.

This jukeman should be looked after, as many houses have been stripped of pipe and metal fixtures of late, doubtless the work of boys who found a market for the stolen stuff in the junkman.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harris, who have been spending a week or ten days in our city, returned to their home in Fresno Thursday, where they will remain a few days looking after their fruit interests, after which they will go to the Pines for the month of August.

The district manager of the Fraternal Brotherhood, Mr. W. S. Haywood, will be present to conduct the installation ceremonies next Monday evening in the local lodge hall.

PENINSULA TRANSIT CO.

WIPE OUT EARLY MORNING BLAZE WRECKS BIG BUS LINE

F. A. CUNNINGHAM AIDED IN ORGANIZING CORPORATION
EMPLOYING 50 MEN.

One of the big corporations of San Mateo county—the Peninsula Rapid Transit Company—for which F. A. Cunningham of this city did yeomen's service in organizing, was practically wiped out by fire shortly before 3 o'clock this morning, when a blaze destroyed its big garage and workshop at San Mateo and burned up thirteen buses, worth $10,000 each at the present market value. The brick garage contained all except one of the popular motor passenger vehicles of the company. A number of cars belonging to private individuals were being painted. More than fifty men were employed.

The damage in loss of motor cars and business will total more than $200,000.

A gasoline explosion is said to have caused the fire.

YOUNG HICKEY READY TO SERVE HIS COUNTRY

Thomas Hickey, son of the supervisor, who drew the serial draft number of 1448 in the lottery at the national capital, and therefore will be among the first to answer the military call of his country, takes his selection in an enthusiastic and patriotic manner.

Young Hickey must abandon his studies at the Santa Clara College to take up arms for the United States, and, of course, this will work a hardship upon him.

"Some must go to the front," Hickey stated this morning when interviewed by a representative of The Enterprise. "I am willing to do my bit," he said.

Young Hickey has distinguished himself as an athlete and student, and he represents the cream of the nation which is being called upon to defend our national honor.

MANUFACTURERS' ASSN. MAINTAIN OFFICES AT SOUTH CITY

The Manufacturers' Association of South San Francisco now maintain offices in this city with Peck & Co. The organization will keep its office in San Francisco.

The purpose of the local office of the Manufacturers' Association is to get into closer touch with the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and other local bodies, with the view of pulling together for South San Francisco.

DRAFT LOTTERY STRIKES SOUTH CITY 99 TIMES

YOUNG THOS. HICKEY, DR. CHARLES DECKER AMONG FIRST TO BE DRAWN BY "UNCLE SAM" FOR SERVICE

South San Francisco proved to be exceedingly popular with the draft lottery at Washington, D. C., for the numbers of 99 local residents were drawn from the first 575 of San Mateo county.

It has been unofficially announced that if the name of the registrant was not drawn from the first 575, there was practically little chance of his being called in the first draft. However, an element of uncertainty exists, and it is practically out of the question to know just what is what at this time.

Leading young citizens of this city figure in the first draft call, subject to exemption provisions.

The first man to register here on June 5th was Newton Armstrong, 731 Maple avenue. He was among the first called, having been given the serial number of 1331.

The serial numbers of all South San Francisco registrants range from 1331 to 2007. This fact should aid in ascertaining the status of local residents.

Young Thomas Hickey, noted baseball pitcher, Santa Clara College student and son of Supervisor Hickey, will probably be called shortly. With Dr. Charles Decker and other well known citizens his number was among the first drawn. Though the name of George A. Kneese appears among those drawn, he declares that there is evidently an error, as he is above the draft age and had not registered.

The following are the first called, but this does not by any means indicate that actual service will be seen:

COUNTY QUOTA OF 438 RESULTS IN QUERY

From the office of the Adjutant-General in Sacramento, E. E. Cunningham, chairman of the San Mateo County Exemption Board, learned that this county's gross quota for the military draft is 438.

Believing that the quota is exceedingly high, in view of the two-thirds of 1 per cent population estimate for the draft, Judge Cunningham at noon phoned County Clerk Joseph H. Nash to wire a query in the nature of a protest to Sacramento for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not an error had been made.

The gross quota will be reduced considerably by those who have volunteered since April.

Summery Togs as Contrast to Khaki

WORN with a white net frock, this parasol of pompadour taffeta, with frilling of rose taffeta, gives just the June garden party effect we wish to make. The floral decorations are accentuated by taffeta roses sitting on the caught up gores.

Silk tassels in color to match the blouse are very much in favor as a trimming. Usually points are provided on collars and revers on which to attach the tassels.

Cotton volles occupy an important place on the list of summer materials, and a favorite arrangement is an open checking line of white upon a colored ground and with a slightly corded effect, this device, almost imperceptible at a little distance, being brought more definitely to the notice by an occasional broad bar of the white or an intersecting line in a contrasting hue.

Umbrellas have become more beautiful, bright plaids, cheerful flowers and artistic designs being used on materials covering the ribs. On the other hand, parasols have become more practical as well as beautiful. They are so constructed that they may be carried in sunshine or rain.

Wool embroidery is being used on corsets. Simple designs are worked in orchid, flesh, purple or yellow colors.

ANNA MAY.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS FIX FIVE-MILE DRY MILITARY ZONE

A score of saloons at Woodside, Belmont and Beresford may be forced out of business and the sale of liquor at the Menlo and Beresford country clubs may be stopped by two new county ordinances which were introduced at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors Monday for the purpose of establishing a five-mile dry zone around the Menlo Park army cantonment. Those who have examined the ordinances declare that the restricted area is defined as all the unincorporated territory within five miles of the encampment and the drill grounds to be used in connection therewith. As the grounds to be used for drilling purposes and field maneuvers extend right up the Portola valley to Woodside and the Spring Valley property, it is believed by many that the dry zone will include Beresford and Belmont, which are within a five-mile radius of part of the cantonment.

The resignation was accepted, but no successor was named.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES HOLDS SHORT MEETING

The Board of Trustees held a very short session last Monday evening, the meeting only lasting forty-five minutes.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—TWENTY-FIVE TIN SOLDIERS

He Lost Hardly a Minute Setting Them Up.

[Adapted from Hans Christian Andersen.]

JACK and Evelyn finished planting peas and ran to daddy for a story. This is how he began it: "Once upon a time there were five and twenty tin soldiers. They were all brothers, of course, for they were all the children of the same old tin spoon.

"Each man shouldered his gun, kept his eyes well to the front and wore the smartest kind of a red and blue uniform.

"One day a papa bought them at a toy shop and carried them home to his little boy. The first thing they heard after they reached their new quarters, when the lid was taken off the box, was a little boy laughing and clapping his hands and crying: 'Soldiers! Soldiers!'

"Goody!" cried the children.

"Now it happened to be his birthday, and these tin soldiers were his present from his daddy. So he lost hardly a minute setting them up on the table. How straight and tall they were!

"The little boy found all twenty-five tin soldiers just alike except one. This soldier differed from all the rest in having only one leg, for he was made last, and there wasn't quite enough of the old tin spoon left to finish his leg.

"However, he stood very straight on one leg, just as straight, in fact, as the rest of his brothers. And he was the one fated to be the famous one of all of them, as we shall see.

"On the birthday table where these tin soldiers were being set up were many other toys, for the parents of the little boy were very fond of him and had remembered his birthday generously. But the chief thing that would have caught your eye was a delightful paper castle.

"You could see through the tiny windows right into the little rooms. Outside some tiny trees stood around a bit of mirror, which, of course, was meant for a lake, and its surface reflected some wax swans that were swimming around in it. It was altogether a charming castle, but the loveliest thing about it was a pretty little girl standing in its doorway.

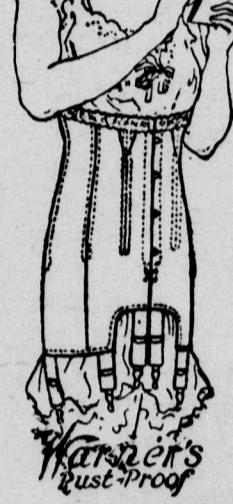

"She, too, was cut out of paper, but she wore a beautiful dress of the lightest gauze, with dainty little blue ribbons over her shoulders, and her scarf was set off with a brilliant spangle almost as big as she was. She stretched out both arms and balanced on one leg. In fact, she was a little dancer," daddy finished.

"Thank you, daddy!" cried the children.

Then without teasing Jack and Evelyn hugged daddy good night and ran off to bed.

ARTICLES POISONED; BEWARE OF PEDDLERS

Believing that attempts may be made by alien enemies to start epidemics in the United States through the medium of germ-infected merchandise, the Defense Council of San Mateo county has asked the sheriff's office to warn the public to exercise the utmost care in purchasing goods from peddlers.

A man, believed to be a German agent, was arrested recently in Oklahoma for peddling courtplaster, which was found to contain large quantities of leprosy germs.

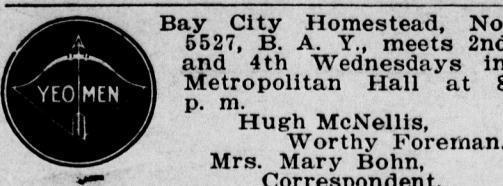

A peddler passed through Redwood City a few days ago selling courtplaster, and samples of the plaster are now in the possession of Sheriff Sheehan. Under Sheriff H. W. Lumpkin stated that steps will be taken to have the courtplaster analyzed by a bacteriologist.

Peninsula Camp

The people of San Mateo county and the Peninsula in general owe a debt of gratitude to Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco for his earnest efforts in bringing the great army camp to this community. It was through his influence and through the efforts of his associates that the camp was made possible in this section of the state. The big camp was slated to go to the American Lake region in Oregon, but Mr. Rolph became acquainted with the fact that it might be brought to this community. He at once communicated with Washington and soon had influential San Francisco citizens wiring the president and the war department. In a few days telling work was done, with the result that Washington concluded to locate the camp on the Peninsula. It is said Mr. Rolph advanced $100,000 to lease the land for the camp site and other expenditures that had to be met immediately. The mayor is a resident of the county, has its interests at heart and wishes to see it progress. By a recent order of the war department the whole of the big camp will be made up of 30,000 soldiers who will be located in San Mateo county. Thousands will come here from all sections to see the soldiers. San Mateo county will receive more advertising than it has ever received before, more homes will be erected in its confines, a bigger population will be created and this whole section will become better known and appreciated by our own people and by those coming here from other sections. We are certainly indebted to Mayor Rolph for all these good things. He has made the ablest and most popular mayor San Francisco has ever had. He has done much for the city that has honored him with its highest position. Still higher honors await him. No man in the state is more popular with the masses and no man has done more for his city and state than James Rolph.—Redwood City Times-Gazette.

Curbng the Waste

Just now the housewives of the country are being deluged with advice and warnings as to waste in the kitchens. In nine families out of ten the advice is entirely superfluous, from the fact that prices and pocketbooks fail to harmonize. Economy was the first lesson learned by the women when the present era of high prices opened. There is practically no waste in the average American home.

The waste and extravagance in this country is in the hotels, restaurants, cafes, etc., and in the mansions of the idle rich. Intelligent economy will never be practiced in these places so long as people persist in from six to ten course meals, of which but a small fraction is actually consumed, the residue either going to "second hand" resorts or to the swill barrel. No system of food economy can be successful that permits waste of products for no other reason than that the waster has the price.

Marketing Nation's Surplus

Already the indications are that this country will produce this season the greatest crop of grains, vegetables and fruits, to say nothing of hay and other roughage, that it has ever seen grown. This is very encouraging, and it should tend to cheer us for the great struggle that has been the incentive to this stimulation of production.

But in connection with this there is yet another problem to be solved—that of marketing this crop. In ordinary times this is no little matter. Under present conditions it assumes serious proportions. But it is something that will have to be worked out, and the sooner the intelligence of the country is put to work on the matter the better the country will fare.

The average farmer has no trouble in marketing his staple crops, such as wheat, corn, potatoes and livestock—at least in normal years. This year, though, he is liable not to fare so well even on these. But the small fruits and vegetables have always been rather hard to dispose of profitably, and will be more so this year.

This matter of intelligent marketing should not be left to chance. Intelligent efforts should be directed toward it, and preparations should start at once.

And right here is where a close community co-operation will prove of invaluable service. The average American farmer raises vegetables and fruits in abundance, and markets them by selecting what his family needs and permitting the overplus to practically go to waste—at least return to the soil. Surplus summer fruits and vegetables are hard to market, but it is right here in this surplus—that is, in getting it to the cities, or to the points of country where it is not produced—that the greatest economy can be practiced.

It is to a careful marketing of the surplus perishable products of the farms that community organizations, boards of trade and business men all over the country should direct their attention.

It is the irony of fate as well as laughable. Even the hardened thieves and murderers in our jails refuse to have anything to do with the slackers when they are thrust in to serve their sentences. Verily, if the way of the transgressor is hard, it would seem that that of the slacker is hell.

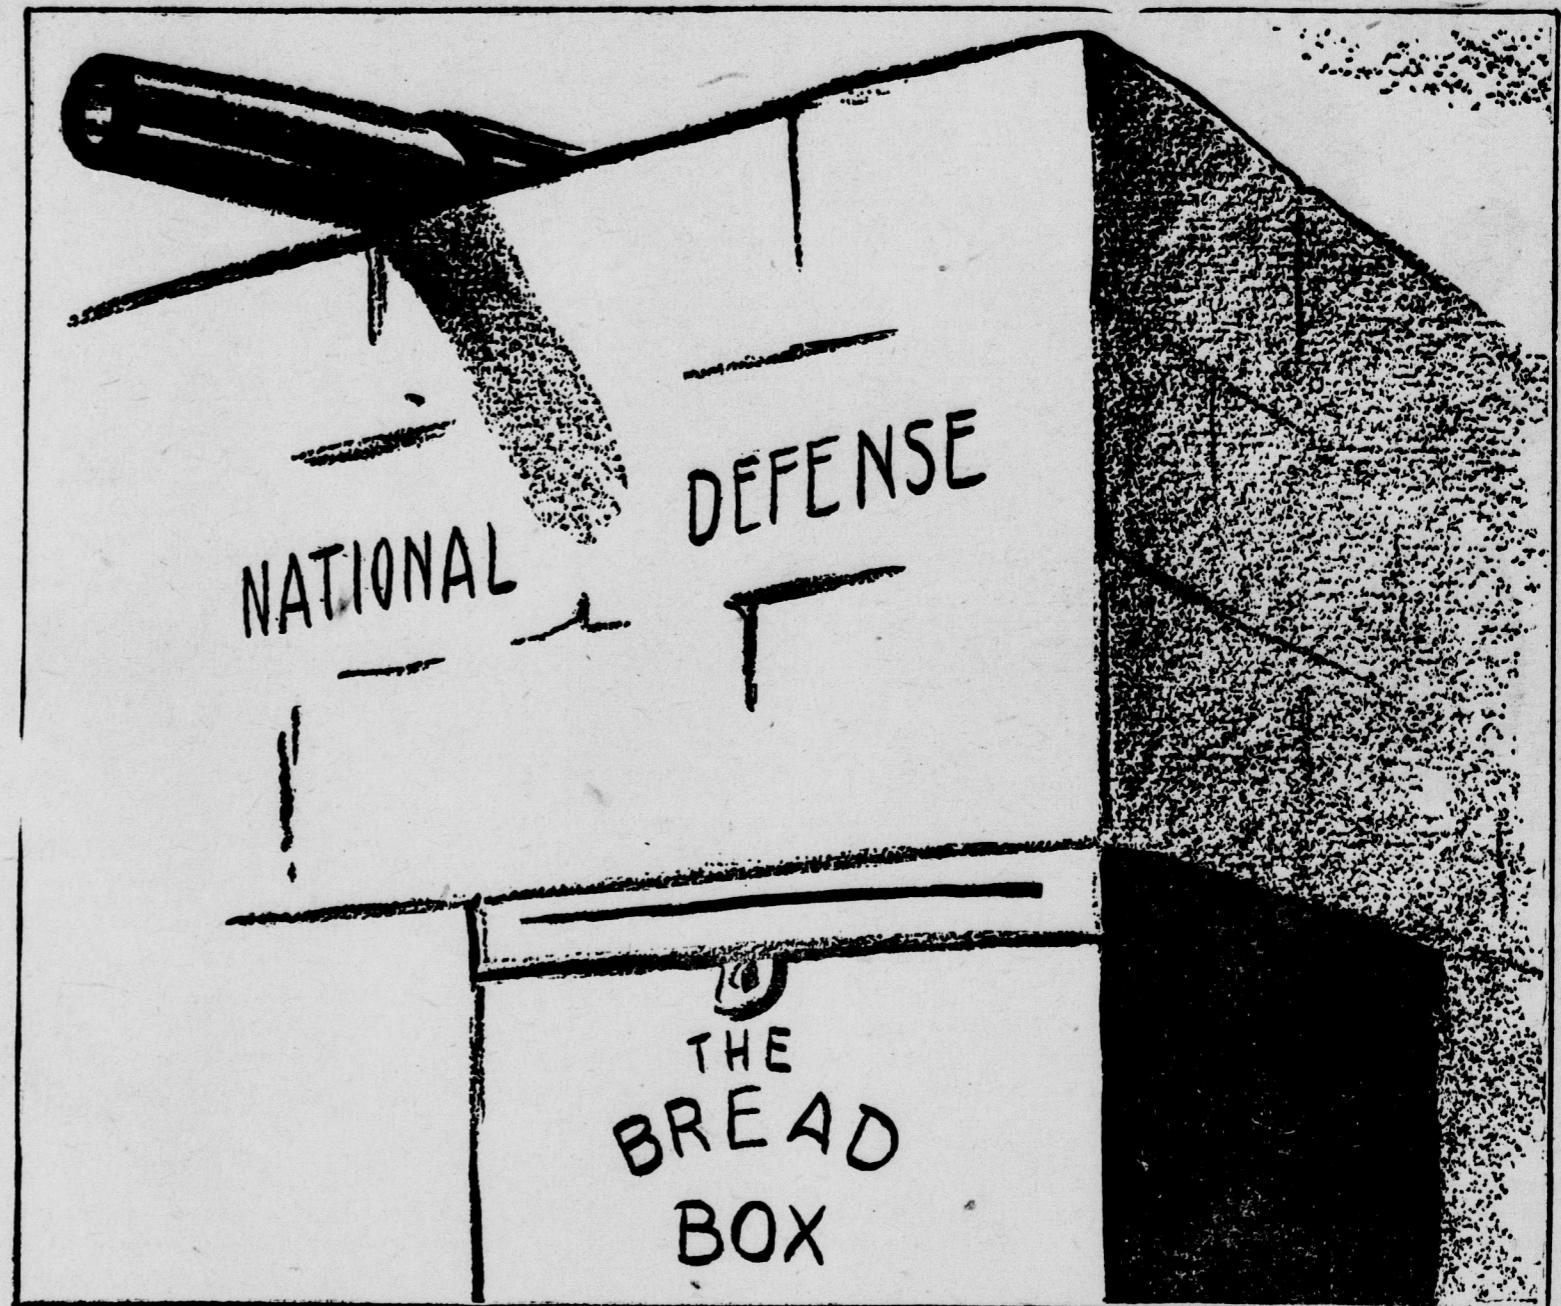

A big noise never indicates a wise head. It is often the pastime of the fool.

There are entirely too many traitors and spies in this country. Let the lampposts come into their own.

Federal judges throughout the country are sending the slackers to jail for a year and a day. AMEN!

East St. Louis, it seems, is becoming "kaiserized." Its brand of "kultur" is distasteful to the rest of American mankind.

THE CORNER STONE.

—Fitzpatrick in St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Yes, we are keen on free rides, but deliver us from an airplane with a hundred guns popping away at us. This old print shop looks powerful good to us just now.

Down with the spies—or up with them—or anything to get rid of them. Too much is more than a sufficiency.

In time, forsooth, we will cease to say "uneasy lies the head that wears a crown." There will be no crowns to wear.

Strange indeed, but true. Since the trenches have become the center of the stage we seldom hear hell or Mexico mentioned.

The late arrival of summer inclines one to the suspicion that speculators have cornered the sun.

And still, "Creel" and "squeal" have a rhyming sound.

Some day, somewhere, some fellow will invent a pipe that will do its own puffing.

You bet, we are perfectly willing to go to war, provided the government will furnish us a horse and an automobile for our convenience, and a mule or a delinquent subscriber to do our kicking.

Shucks! Knocking out whisky didn't bother us a little bit. We didn't have the price, anyway.

Don't bother your head poring over a French primer, young man. A kiss tastes just as sweet from a foreign tongue.

An unsophisticated writer advises us to cling to our good name, even though life itself is spent in the effort. Thunder! We want 'em both.

An exchange wants to know how a city man goes about it to get a dollar's worth of farm land for every dollar he invests. He don't!

Having disposed of the slackers, we may now turn our attention to that other ever-present pest, the mosquito.

A friend who thinks he knows more about running a newspaper than we do advises us to go back to the farm. Bully. Give us the farm and we'll go.

We tried manfully not to see that couple the other night, but our eyes just refused to be diverted from the spot. Still, you know, we couldn't help it—and, perhaps, we won't say any more about it. No, don't ask us; it's too good to repeat.

No, it isn't at all difficult to apply common sense, if you have any to apply.

Every time we see a woman with a lot of paint daubed over her face we wonder how much it would take to cover the barn.

The best advice we can give you, William, is never to buy a thing you can't pay for. Let them give it to you.

Nevertheless, we insist that God is good to us. He is not on our delinquent list.

The kaiser announces that he will fight to the last gasp. Certainly, Billum, we didn't expect any other outcome.

BOXING CONTEST

The South City Athletic Club will hold its monthly boxing contest on Monday, July 30th.

All over expenses will be donated to the Red Cross.

This being a Red Cross benefit, Promoter Monize has arranged to admit women.

The main event will be between Eddie White of Colma and Battling Rudy of Los Angeles. Both boys have met before at San Jose and fought a hard draw.

Promoter Monize witnessed the fight, and thought it a good thing to have them rematched for the benefit of our fight fans.

Al Doyle, well known among the fans, will meet Jimmy Marcell of San Francisco in the special event.

Both boys have been training hard and a fast bout is expected. Promoter Monize has promised the winner the main event at the next show.

Al Costa of the South City Athletic Club, known as a second Willie Hoppe, will meet Eddie Clabby in a return match.

Costa stopped Clabby in the third at the last show. The latter is asking for a return match to even matters up.

Two-round Rodgers, also of the South City Athletic Club, will meet Harry Clemmy of San Francisco. Both boys being hard slingers, will make the bout interesting.

Kid Vedo and Battling Drexel, both of San Francisco, also Kid Burns and Mike Verna, will complete the card.

Fire Chief Chas. H. Woodman is investigating the incendiary blazes which occurred last Monday at the Grand Hotel. Two different fires were started about seventeen feet apart, but were extinguished before the fire department arrived. Manager Burns of the hotel complimented the fire department upon its prompt arrival. Woodman found several "drunks" in the hotel, but they could offer no explanation for the flames.

JAIL JUNKMAN.

Frank Kauffman, San Mateo junkman, was arrested by Chief of Police Thomas F. Burke on the charge of buying and selling in the city limits without a license. Kauffman was taken before City Recorder Elvins pleaded guilty and he was fined $20. Kauffman announced after he had been fined that he intended to appeal the case. He was released on $20 bonds.

COWS DIE; PROBE.

Geo. McLellan, Beresford rancher, has asked the sheriff of San Mateo county to probe the death of three of his valuable cows, which died suddenly. He fears that they may have been poisoned. The stomachs of the animals are to be analyzed.

"BARON" CALLED IMPOSTOR.

Burlingame and Hillsborough society folks were dismayed to hear that "Baron de Malussene," who has been posing there as a war hero, has been branded as an impostor by the French consul general in San Francisco. The "baron" was the lion at several garden parties on the Peninsula, gave war lectures before fashionable audiences in San Francisco, and collected money for the French Red Cross. The consul general says the "baron" never was near a European battlefield, and that his real name is Simon Henry. The information was secured from Paris.

NEW PURCHASING AGENT CHOSEN FOR SAN MATEO COUNTY; WERDER ON JOB

Miss Gertrude Pitcher, assistant to District Attorney Swart, tendered her resignation to the supervisors as county purchasing agent, a position which was created some time ago when attention was called to the fact that the law provided no assistant for the district attorney. She gave no reason for resigning, but it is generally understood that she found it impossible to perform the duties of purchasing agent as required by law while also serving as stenographer for the district attorney's office.

On motion of Supervisor McBain, seconded by Supervisor Hickey, the resignation was accepted, and a short time later Supervisor McBain moved that his private secretary, Ernest H. Werder, be appointed as her successor, at a salary of $100 a month. The motion was seconded by Supervisor Francis, and Werder was appointed as San Mateo county's new purchasing agent.

Werder is a member of a well-known Redwood City family, and has been employed as Supervisor McBain's secretary ever since the last election.

What plan has been made for Miss Pitcher to continue in her capacity as assistant to the district attorney is not known, but the new salary bill provided by the last legislature provides a stenographer for the district attorney, and as soon as this law takes effect there will be no doubt about the legality of the position.

On Small Areas It Is Preferable to Plant Sets.

[Prepared by United States department of agriculture.]

Onions, like potatoes, are a staple crop that is grown commercially on a very extensive scale. As a general rule, it is well to have the crop follow some other one that has been kept under the hoe and free from weeds the previous season.

In the north seed is sown as early in the spring as the soil can be brought to the proper condition. In the south onion sets are frequently put out in the autumn and carried through the winter with the protection of a little hay or straw. There are three methods of propagating onions—the first, by sowing the seed in rows where the crop is to grow; second, by sowing the seed in specially prepared beds and transplanting the seedlings to the open ground; and, third, by planting sets which have been kept through the winter. The first method is used by large commercial growers on account of the amount of labor involved in the others. On small areas, however, it may be preferable to plant sets. Under normal conditions these may usually be obtained at planting time for about $2.50 a bushel, eight or nine bushels being required to plant an acre. Onions planted from sets will ripen earlier than those from seed sown in the fields. When the transplanting method is used the seed is sown in green houses, hotbeds, cold frames or specially prepared beds at the rate of three and one-half to four pounds for each acre to be planted. The seedlings are transplanted when they are somewhat smaller than a lead pencil and rather stocky. The root end of the seedling is pushed into the soil with one finger, and the soil is then firmly about the plant.

The seed is sown thickly in drills about twelve to fourteen inches apart. After the plants become established they are thinned to two or three inches apart. The maturity of the bulbs may be hastened by preventing the continued growth of the tops. This is sometimes accomplished by rolling an empty barrel over the rows and breaking down the tops. After these are practically dead the onion bulbs may be pulled up by hand from the soil and spread in a dry, well ventilated place to cure. Thereafter they may be stored in crates or bags for winter use. In the north the crop ripens and is harvested during the latter part of the summer and early autumn. In the southern states, where the crop is grown during the winter, the harvesting and marketing period takes place during the spring months.

AMERICA

By Samuel Francis Smith

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty, of thee I sing.
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break—
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty, to Thee we sing—
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God our King!

SPRINGING UP OF A NEW MENLO PARK

UNEXPECTED COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY THRUST UPON THE VILLAGE AND PROPERTY CHANGING HANDS.

(From the Redwood City Times-Gazette.)

Menlo Park has awakened from a Rip Van Winkle sleep of years to see a military camp established in its midst, which means that a city of 30,000 or 40,000 inhabitants will soon be realized by the old inhabitants, who never dreamed of such a sudden change. From a sleepy village Menlo Park is soon to be a bustling, busy city, the most thriving municipality on the Peninsula. Already it has taken on a military air; business is feeling the effects, new enterprises are being started, and the demand for stores and quarters on the principal streets is tremendous. The Maloney, O'Keefe and Coxon blocks have been leased for long periods. Agents are seeking moving picture sites, and, if the rumors are to be believed, no less than three will be put up within the next month. A few sales of property have been reported. The largest sale made in Menlo Park for many years was consummated yesterday, when James G. Mason sold his four-acre tract fronting on the highway and opposite the Johnson tract to Charles H. Merrill, who resides there and is a member of the firm of Holbrook, Merrill, Stetson & Co. of San Francisco. It is said that close on $20,000 was paid for the choice realty. Mr. Mason purchased the property from the Mark Hopkins estate over fifteen years ago. Mr. Merrill will at once commence the erection of several large buildings on the block, which will be for rent. Portions of the land will be subdivided and sold.

WOULD SELL $75,000 WORTH OF JEFFERSON SCHOOL BONDS

Supervisor Hickey announces that he had communicated with the school trustees of the Jefferson school district relative to the bids received earlier in the day for the $75,000 school bonds, and that a majority of the trustees favored accepting the bid offered by the National City Company, as the district needed the money immediately. The National City Company's bid was par value, plus accrued interest, plus a premium of $955, and was the highest of the three bids received. Although the board considered the bid very low, it decided to carry out the recommendation of the school board, and accepted the bid.

The following article, as it appears in the Yosemite Tourist:

From South San Francisco.

"Pleasantly located in Camp 16, near Curry's, is an auto party, consisting of three 'live wires' from South San Francisco. They are Dave Ratto, the cook; Ben Killeen, the dishwasher, and Chas. Storek, the chauffeur.

"The drive to the valley was made over the picturesque Oak Flat road. En route they visited the Tuolumne Big Trees and other points of interest.

"The young men come here with a reputation as expert fishermen, so the wary trout had better beat it to the tall timber until this party leaves for home.

"All three are with the Pacific Coast Steel Company.

"They will be here a week or so."
